Ex-Bernas Manager Claims Trial to Bribery Charges

MELISSA DARLYNE CHOW
New Straits Times, March 23, 2016

ALOR STAR: A former Bernas manager was today hauled to the Sessions Court here to face six charges of accepting a total of RM73,000 in bribes between Sept 11, 2013 and August 6, 2014.

In the first charge, Hassin Mad Zin, 53, was accused of accepting a bribe of RM9,000 from one Wan Helmi Wan Darus, the owner of WH Amana Enterprise, as a means of getting 30 metric tonnes of the ST15 rice for the company, for the month of July 2014, from the Agriculture and Agro-Based Industry Ministry.

He was accused of committing the offence at the Alor Star branch of Bank Islam, at 1.38pm on August 6, 2014.

Hassin was further slapped with another five charges of accepting a total of RM64,000 in bribes from one Rusli Abdullah, the owner of Syarikat Berkat Zairul Enterprise, as a means of getting a total of 200 metric tonnes of ST15 rice for the months of Sept to Dec 2013, from the same ministry.

He had allegedly committed the offences at the Guar Chempedak and Alor Star branches of Bank Islam, between Sept 11, 2013, and January 7, 2014. Hassin claimed trial to all the charges, under Section 16(a)(A) of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009, which carries a maximum 20 years' jail and a fine of not less than five times the amount of gratification, or RM10,000, whichever is higher.

Sessions Court judge Zainol Rashid Hussain set a total bail of RM7,500 with one surety for the first charge, and for the subsequent five charges, a total bail of RM15,000 with one surety. He fixed Apr 26 for mention.

The Whistle blower Protection Act 2010 is a law of Malaysia to combat corruption and other wrong doings by encouraging and facilitating disclosures of improper conduct in the public and private sector, to protect persons making those disclosures from detrimental action, to provide for the matter disclosed to be investigated and dealt with and to provide for the remedies connected therewith.

The act was passed by Parliament in June 2010, and was brought into force on 15 December 2010. The objective of the act is to give protection to the whistle blower in the form of confidentiality of their information, immunity from civil and criminal action and protection from detrimental action being taken against them. Whistle blower protection is one of the Malaysian Government's efforts towards tackling corruption and promoting good governance under Government Transformation Programme (GTP).

Required:
