A fruitful co-operation

UNIKL MSI has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with industries at the northern region of Malaysia for cooperation in education, industrial knowledge and sharing of resources between the university and the industries.

The MoU covers joint collaboration in the fields of education, automotive and oil and gas. It includes the exchange of expertise, facilities, educational and research purposes. Three industries / companies involved in this collaboration are First Solar (M) Sdn Bhd, Go Auto Manufacturing Sdn Bhd and Star Technology Industrial Corporation Sdn Bhd. The MoU Signing Ceremony was held in UniKL MSI, Kulim, Kedah, on July 30.

Universiti Kuala Lumpur was represented by UniKL president Prof Datuk Dr Mazliham Mohd Su'ud, while First Solar (M) Sdn Bhd was represented by Manufacturing Operation vice-president and managing director Datuk Png Soo Hong; Go Automobile Manufacturing Sdn Bhd by executive director Farok Maasom and Star Technology Industrial Corporation Sdn Bhd by executive director Zahari Awang Ahmad. The signing ceremony was witnessed by Science, Innovation and Information Technology, Communication and High Technology, Kedah State Government exco and Bandar Baharu Adun Datuk Norsabrina Mohd Noor; Universiti Kuala Lumpur (Management and Services) deputy president Datuk Mohamed Hisham Che Abdul Ghani Deputy and Mara Kedah (Development) deputy director Ahmad Shukri Mohd Suri.

Additionally, the signing ceremony was also attended by Universiti Kuala Lumpur (International, Industrial and Institutional Partnership) deputy president Prof Datuk Hj Ahmad Zahir Haji Mokhtar; UniKL MSI dean / head of campus Prof Dr Abu Talib Othman; representatives from industries and management members of Universiti Kuala Lumpur and UniKL MSI.

Prof Mazliham hoped that the MoU signings will benefit both UniKL and industries, particularly in human capital development, research and product innovation, and operation improvements.
