DOUBLE CHEER FOR UNIKL

Team celebrate virtually grabbing MHL title and their defender's baby girl, all in one day

JUGJET SINGH
jugjet@nst.com.my

THERE was double joy for Universiti Kuala Lumpur (UniKL) yesterday.

In the morning, their defender Baljit Singh was blessed with a baby girl, and in the evening, they virtually lifted the Malaysia Hockey League (MHL) title. Playing at the Batu Buruk Stadium in Kuala Terengganu, UniKL defeated Terengganu Hockey Team (THT) 2-0 with goals from Razie Rahim (33rd) and Izwan Firdaus (59th).

And with maximum points after eight matches, UniKL look set for a home run in the eight-team league.

THT coach K. Dharmaraj has thrown in the towel.

"Even though there are still six more matches to play, you can safely say that the league title now belongs to UniKL, who have opened up a five-point lead. They can even afford to lose a match.

"For THT, we will focus on finishing second in the league and then go for the TNB Cup title," said Dharmaraj.

UniKL coach Arul Selvaraj said: "First of all, I would like to congratulate my defender Baljit on his newborn.

"It turned out to be a good day for UniKL as we managed to extend our winning streak. I don't want to be overconfident, even though we have opened up a good lead.

"All the remaining matches will be given utmost attention.

Vino-Astana Motors out to make an impact in LTdL

KAZAKHSTAN'S Vino-Astana Motors hope to make their presence felt in this year's Petronas Le Tour de Langkawi (LTdL), which starts on Friday.

Despite leaving out last year's third-place overall finisher Vadim Pronskiy, Vino-Astana Motors are still confident ahead of the race.

Igor Chzhan, 20, and 19-year old Yevgeniy Fedorov will lead the charge this year.

Chzhan is eager to challenge for honours after his second-placed outing in the Tour of Peninsula in October while Fedorov is the reigning Under-23 Asian time trial champion.

He also finished second in the road race event at the Under-23 Asian Championships last year.

The team will also be counting on the experience of 27-year old sprinter Matvey Nikitin, who won last year's Odessa Grand Prix in Ukraine.

He will be backed by Grigoriy Shtein and Alexandr Semenov in the flat stages.

Chzhan and Fedorov, along with 19-year old Gleb Brussinskiy will carry the team's general classification hopes, where they are expected to challenge for the Asian classifications.

The 25th edition of LTdL will begin in Kuching.

The 86.7km Criterium International in Kota Kinabalu will serve as a prelude, while the post-race 159km Malaysian Classic in Langkawi will end festivities on Feb 15.
